

EARLY SUBMISSION REJECTION NOTICE

www.welove.com

WHEN IS AN EARLY BIRD TOO EARLY?

WHEN WE RECEIVE YOUR SUBMISSION MORE THAN A SEASON PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE!

We have received your submission. However, we do not accept submissions more than 90 days prior to an account's proposed effective date.

Therefore, we are returning your submission intact without review. Our job is to serve you well, but given the fact that all underwriting information, especially loss runs, must be valued within 90 days of any proposed effective date, your information is, by simple math, too dated.

We understand and appreciate your desire to do business with us. Let us all keep in mind the fair rules of business as we work together. Thank you for your understanding.

Remember, for trucking insurance:

All you need is LOVE... W.E. Love, that is!
